DTS Integrated Optical Module

Overview

The DTS integrated optical module integrates the Raman light source, APD detector, and acquisition card independently developed by WDM and Idealphotonics with corresponding intellectual property rights. The module has high integration and small size. All modules have undergone rigorous. Leading manufacturer of photodetectors and distributed fiber optic sensing systems (DVS,DAS,DTS) from China, Over 100 universities and research units have chosen us. Distributed Temperature Fiber Sensing (DTS) module based on the Raman scattering principle, a single optical fiber as a transmission, the use of optical fiber inside the Stokes light and anti-Stokes light on the temperature of the different degree of sensitivity to temperature resolution, widely. rature information.
